Christian Moro is an experienced General Counsel with a demonstrated history in the staffing and recruiting industry. He has 10+ years of experience in many facets of the industry, most notably in Corporate Transactions, Employment Law, Human Resources, Settlement Negotiations, Pre-Litigation Arbitration and Insurance Claims Management.

Throughout his career, Christian has helped grow some of the biggest names in the light industrial staffing sector and has managed contracts for one of the largest trucking staffing companies for a number of years.

Currently, Christian is General Counsel at a staffing company with 75 branch locations in 10 states. Christian manages the entire litigation portfolio, which includes the tendering of claims and working with various nationally-acclaimed insurance companies, managing the claims internally from tender to settlement/trial and coordinating communications between the client company and the various insurance entities.

As part of his duties, he has overseen his company's rapid expansions and managed their various mergers and acquisitions. In this role, he works hand-in-hand with the C-Level suite executives to push the company forward and promote growth while still protecting its legal interests.

A graduate of the McGeorge School of Law at the University of the Pacific, Christian has a strong legal background, making him a unique asset to all of those seeking a better MGA experience.

Christian is an active member of many local and national organizations including the San Diego Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Sacramento Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, American Staffing Association, California Lawyers Association, and the Association of Corporate Counsel.

"Sometimes it takes more than just an agent to fight on your behalf in the insurance world. My strong legal and insurance backgrounds gives me a unique outlook and strong advantage when it comes to both understanding and securing better coverage." - Christian Moro
